

DC Cable Clips

DAR's DC Cable Clips are precision-engineered to securely fasten stranded copper conductors to building surfaces. Constructed from phosphorus bronze, these clips offer superior strength and durability, ensuring a reliable hold in various environmental conditions. These clips are an essential component of DAR's electrical installation accessories, providing an efficient and robust solution for conductor management.

DAR
FOR ENGINEERING SUPPLIES